

With the band

DON'T HIDE YOUR KEYS under the garden gnome while you're out for a power walk – stash them in this nifty FLY Active Wrist Pocket, $10. The stretchy, absorbent material doubles as a sweatband, and is machine washable.

Weather or not

COVER UP on cool days without being weighed down. This carbon jacket by The North Face, $169.95, has a windproof front and a breathable, stretchy knit back and underarm panels to regulate your temperature. Reflective shoulder trim increases your visibility too.

Short and sweet

SWAP AND CHANGE as the mood takes you in these super-comfortable Russell Athletic reversible shorts, $44.95. Made from 100 per cent cotton double layer jersey, you can sport navy and black stripes one day and plain navy the next. Twice the wearability means half the laundry. Hurrah! Also available in pink and navy.

Odour beaters

NO MORE STINKY FEET These all-natural bamboo socks from Sofsole, $9.99, provide top moisture wicking and comfort, with a seamless toe to stop you wearing a hole through it. Plus, two per cent spandex provides extra comfort thanks to fabric flexibility that moves with you.

STYLE EDITOR'S NOTES

→ "Forget Havaianas. This summer the trend has flip-flopped to Trove Tkees – wearable cosmetics for feet. Find a pair that matches your skin tone to give the appearance of long, lean legs. Made of organic leather, they come in three lines: Foundations, Liners and Highlighters. From $75, find them at miijo.com."
